MRS. EDWARD THOMPSON STRATTON
the former Miss Julie Lee Moore

Wed in Evening Ceremony

White summer flowers banked with palms and lighted cathedral candles decorated Red Oak Baptist Church June 19 for the wedding of Miss Julie Lee Moore and Edward Thompson Stratton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace D. Moore of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Marshall Stratton, Jr. of Concord. The double ring vows were read at 8:00 P.M. by the Rev. Dennis Moore of Chamblissburg, VA. Mr. Daniel Stratton, organist and brother of the groom and Mrs. Ralph D. Reynolds, soloist and aunt of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music. Songs which were sung included "A Time for Us", "The Twelfth of Never," and "The Wedding Benediction".

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a traditional southern belle formal gown of Chantilly lace over a full hoop skirt. The gown was accented with a Sabrina neckline and fitted bodice and fashioned with a natural waistline. The long fitted sleeves were tapered to a V point over the hand. A full skirt of cascading deep ruffles extended into a full cathedral length train. A Camelot headdress of lace and pearls secured her fingertip length three tier veil. Each tier was edged in Chantilly lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of Lily of the Valley, white roses and centered with white orchids.

Miss Sherri O'Neil Harris, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Neville P. Moore, aunt of the bride was matron of honor. They wore a formal gown of orchid organza fashioned with a square neckline edged with a Cluny lace ruffle elasticized at the shoulders forming cap sleeves. The empire waistline was accented with a wide band of Cluny lace. The softly flaired A-line skirt was designed with a wide flounce at the hemline. They wore white ripple picture hats with corresponding orchid ribbon. They carried baskets of pink roses, lavender miniature carnations and purple statice tied with lavendar and pink ribbon.

The bride was also attended by Miss Traci Harris Moore, sister of the bride, who was junior bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Lynn Harris and Miss Lynn Renee Reynoids, cousins of the bride, Mrs. Bruce Stratton, sister-in-law of the groom and Miss Vickie Kiger of Lynchburg. They wore pink organza gowns and white ripple picture hats with corresponding pink ribbon identical to those of the honor attendants. They carried baskets similar to the honor attendants.

Miss Bridgett Alvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Alvis of Lynchburg was flower girl. Miss Alvis also wore a gown of orchid organza identical to the honor attendants.

Master Joey Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie L. Moore and cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. Bruce Stratton served as his brothers best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Robin Wallace Moore, brother of the bride, Mr. Fleming Pinnell Moore, Mr. William Kevin Moore, Mr. David Harris, cousins of the bride, Mr. Randy Foster and Mr. Jimmy Braford.

Miss Tyler Bellinger served as Mistress of Ceremonies. Guests were registered at the bride's book by Mrs. Robert Earl Pankey, cousin of the bride.

Following the wedding ceremony the bride's parents entertained their guests with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Directing were Mrs. Kerry V. Nelson, sister of the groom, Miss Nancy Stratton, Miss Ruth Stratton, cousins of the groom, and Miss Shelby Dunnam, cousin of the bride.

Serving the cake were Mrs. John R. Harris, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Carlton Harris, Jr. and Miss Rebecca Harris, cousins of the bride. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. Everette J. Moore, aunt of the bride, Miss Penny Sue Martin, Miss Teresa Lee Harris, cousin of the bride and Mrs. William Alvis, Presiding at the Bride's table was Mrs. Randy Foster.

The bride's mother received the guess in a formal empire gown of aqua chiffon with a scooped neckline and draped collar designed with long full sheer sleeves and soft A-line skirt. The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of peach polyster designed with a cowl collar and long lace sleeves. The mother of the bride added a pink orchid carsage and the mother of the groom added a white orchid carsage.

The bride is a 1975 honor graduate of Appomattox High School and is employed by Caskie, Frost, Hobbs & Hamblen in Lynchburg. The groom is a 1972 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by the Archer Creek Division of the Lynchburg Foundry. Guests attending the wedding from out of state were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson of Cleveland Ohio, relatives of the bride. Mr. Mark Stratton, brother of the groom of Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson, Miss Kathy Lee Thompson, Miss Ellen Thompson, Clifton Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Handy of Winston-Salem, North Carolina relatives of the groom.

Following a wedding trip to Tennessee, the couple will reside in Appomattox.
